Talbot County, Maryland

Room to grow 21st century companies

Talbot County is located midway down the Delmarva Peninsula, just east of the I-95 corridor and the Baltimore/Annapolis/Washington, DC region. The County enjoys over 600 miles of waterfront and five charming and historic towns. Easton is the county seat of government and the regional hub for medical, financial, commercial and cultural activity.

The County is host to seven industrial parks with space for emerging companies to expand. These parks offer secure sites with high-speed redundant fiber infrastructure, connections to major roadways, and access to over 90 critical federal labs and facilities within a 90-mile commute. Town-owned utilities, and the lowest real property tax rate in the state, offer a competitive advantage.

You will find a highly educated and talented workforce, poised to facilitate growth and expansion for a diverse business base. Talbot County's 1,458 businesses draw employees from a population base of 166,000 in a 25-mile radius of downtown Easton. Talbot County targets environment, agriculture, bio/healthcare and information technologies.

Easton hosts a National General Aviation Airport, the highest classification for a general aviation airport, a designation which reflects its importance and contribution to the National Airspace System. The Airport includes an FAA Contract Tower and features STARS LITE radar to accommodate corporate jet traffic, charters, private and home-built aircraft.

Talbot County

“... bring your Science projects to our Backyard”

Located proximate to Baltimore – Washington Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), with an average commute time of 45 to 90 minutes, Talbot County is accessible and strategically located to service the Annapolis/Baltimore/Washington, DC/I -95 corridor.

Within close proximity to the Baltimore/Washington, DC corridor and the Mid-Atlantic metropolitan market, Talbot County is accessible to major cities, international airports and ports. U. S. Route 50 serves as a major north/south transportation thoroughfare for the Delmarva Peninsula and bisects Talbot County. U.S. Route 301 is a truck transport corridor linking Wilmington, DE with points north, and Washington, DC with points south. Talbot County supports an economic hub within a 25-mile radius from downtown Easton, attracting workers into the County. Approximately 30% of the workforce commutes out of the County on a daily basis.

Highway Distances from Easton:

Baltimore, MD	59 miles
Wilmington, DE	65 miles
Washington, DC	73 miles
Philadelphia, PA	110 miles
New York, NY	195 miles
Newport News, VA	207 miles

The Delmarva Peninsula is surrounded on three sides by the Chesapeake Bay, the Delaware Bay, and the Atlantic Ocean. Centrally located on the Delmarva Peninsula, Talbot County is bounded by the Choptank River and Dorchester County to the south, Caroline County to the east, Queen Anne’s County and the Wye River to the north, and the Chesapeake Bay to the west.

Talbot County Government

Talbot County is a Charter form of government, governed by an elected Council, composed of five at-large members. The Talbot County Charter establishes all rights and powers of local self-government and home rule provided by this document and by the Constitution and the laws of the State of Maryland. In the exercise of these powers, the citizens of Talbot County are accorded equal treatment in all matters under the jurisdiction of the County government, regardless of race, creed, sex, or national origin.

Office of Economic Development

The Talbot County Office of Economic Development, funded by Talbot County Government, is responsible for implementing a strategic plan to accomplish the goals and objectives approved by the County Council which promote investment and growth of the economic base of the County. Primary focus is concentrated in the retention, expansion and attraction of business and the development of a technically skilled workforce with family supporting wages.

The Town of Easton is the cultural, financial, medical and commercial center for the Mid-Shore Region. Historic Downtown Easton has adopted an infill redevelopment plan that is attracting new investments and businesses to complement the community.

The Town of Easton, the county seat of government for Talbot County, serves as a commercial hub for the Mid-Shore Region. The University of Maryland Shore Regional Health, Inc. and several assisted living and retirement facilities provide major employment in the medical and healthcare industry. Other major employment sectors in Easton include the Trades, Professional and Business Services, Financial Services and Leisure and Hospitality.

The Daylight Building, a landmark structure central to downtown Easton which exemplifies the Federal Period architecture throughout the town, was recently renovated to house shops and offices. The Tidewater Inn, a 98-room boutique hotel, offers grand dining and events in the Gold Room Banquet facility. Downtown Easton includes art galleries, retail shops and award-winning restaurants within an eight block Historic District. The Town of Easton is supported by eight major retail centers, including Waterside Village, Tred Avon Square, Easton Plaza, Marlboro Plaza, Park Place, Shoppes at Easton, Talbottown of Easton and Easton Commons.

Entertainment and the arts are enhanced by The Avalon Foundation's promotion of live venues at the historic Avalon Theater and support of cultural events, including the Plein Air Festival held in July; the Waterfowl Festival held the 2nd weekend in November; and nationally renowned artists and exhibits at the Academy Art Museum. Talbot County Historical Society Museum and Gardens maintain focus on County history dating back to the 1600's.

Easton Airport (ESN), owned and operated by Talbot County, provides essential access for aviation enthusiasts, corporate pilots, and local businesses. ESN is designated as a National General Aviation airport, reporting 48,777 operations in 2013, including 1,741 military operations.

Easton Airport is located at Newnam Field at the northern entrance to the Town of Easton, adjacent to U.S. Route 50.

Elevation 72' Latitude 38 48'16" N Longitude 76 04'05"W

Traffic Pattern: Right traffic to Runways 22 and 33; Standard Left – Runways 15 and 04

The Airport provides general aviation services from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week, with the support of an FAA Contract Tower. The Airport is also equipped with state-of-the-art STARS LITE radar - <http://eastonairport.com/pilot-services/airport-info/#sthash.Pmn2vh1b.dpuf> and operates as a self-sufficient enterprise on revenues generated from fuel sales, ground lease rents and T-hangar rentals. The Airport provides a terminal with shuttle service to Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI); major and minor Airframe, Engine, and Avionics Repair Stations; and Sugar Buns Airport Café. Thirty (30) businesses operate at the Easton Airport with an employment base of 180 workers.

Talbot County accommodates growth and development in the designated priority funding areas with excess infrastructure capacity and high-speed redundant fiber.

Easton Utilities Commission www.eastonutilities.com

Owned and operated by the Town of Easton as a not-for-profit enterprise operation, Easton Utilities provides electricity, water, wastewater treatment, natural gas, cable television, and high speed redundant Internet services for residents and businesses within the Town of Easton. Fiber optic resources include over 3,000 miles of fiber, located in Easton, interconnected with the Maryland Broadband Cooperative backbone: maintenance of two Metropolitan Area Networks (MAN) (hospital and related; and commercial Advanced Network Service applications); maintenance of one Wide Area Network (WAN) for Talbot County Public Schools; and two diverse fiber paths off the Shore, terminating in Ashburn, VA and Baltimore. Easton Cable Velocity maintains an 860 MHz HFC plant offering cable modem speeds up to 50/4.

The electricity distribution system includes 69 MW of local generation and two points of interconnection with the transmission grid.

Delmarva Power (PEPCO) www.pepcoenergy.com and Choptank Electric Cooperative www.choptankelectric.com provide electric service to Talbot County.

Municipal Water / Wastewater Sewage Systems – The Towns of Oxford, Trappe and Easton operate their own sewer and wastewater treatment systems. St. Michaels and the Village of Tilghman have County-owned and operated wastewater treatment systems. The County continues to invest in new technologies and programs to reduce nitrogen levels of on-site septic systems and to encourage homeowners to maintain septic systems in good operating order.

Chesapeake Utilities www.chpkgas.com provides Natural Gas to Talbot County along the U.S. Route 50 corridor, including the Town of Easton.

Talbot County Bio-Solids Facility - Located on Klondike Road, Talbot County has completed a state-of-the-art Green Energy demonstration project with three wind turbines and a solar farm. The $3.8 million project was made possible with grants from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) and the Maryland Department of the Environment.

Talbot County hosts seven industrial parks with abundant infrastructure capacity, high-speed redundant secure fiber, transportation access, and opportunities for infill development.

COUNTY TRACKER 2013

TALBOT COUNTY, MD

SIZING UP 2013

Talbot County, MD has a county government.

Talbot County is a small, central county in the Easton, MD micropolitan area.

POPULATION, 2012	38,098
NOMINAL GDP	$1.7 BILLION
AVERAGE COUNTY WAGE	$46,400
UNEMPLOYMENT RATE	7.1%

DEFINITION OF TERMS: (Data Source: Moody's Analytics)

Economic output (gross domestic product - GDP): Total value of goods and services produced by a county economy, also known as GDP. Total Jobs: Total wage and salary jobs, whether full or part-time, temporary or permanent in a county economy. It counts the number of jobs, not employed people, for all employers in a county economy, not only for the county government. Median Home Sales Price: Median sales prices of existing single-family homes. Unemployment Rate: The proportion of the civilian labor force that is unemployed. Average Wage: Wages and salary disbursements per job. This indicator is calculated based on total wage and salary disbursements and total wage and salary jobs for each county economy and for each county major industry.

NOTES:

¹ Average unemployment rate changes for the 1990-peak period are minimal. This study determines peak and trough values and years separately for each county economy and each indicator. Peak values represent the highest annual value of a county economy indicator between 2002 and 2009. 2002 marks the first year after the end of the previous U.S. recession; 2009 marks the end of the latest U.S. recession as determined by the National Bureau of Economic Research. Trough values represent the lowest annual value of a county economy indicator between the peak and 2013. It is possible that no recession occurred in a county economy for a specific indicator. Multi-year growth rates are annualized, showing how much an indicator would have grown annually if it increased at a steady rate over a certain period. Industry data reflect values at the 3 digit NAICS levels. 2013 data are forecasts. Small, medium-sized and large counties have a population less than 50,000, between 50,000 and 500,000 and greater than 500,000, respectively. County population values come from the U.S. Census Bureau's population estimates, vintage 2012.
